

Flavio Meyer – Partner of Stocche Forbes Advogados

Flavio Meyer has been working for over 20 years in corporate law matters, mergers and acquisitions, public offerings of both equity and debt instruments, corporate restructurings, broad legal advisory to listed companies, and private equity transactions both on the buy and sell sides. Mr. Meyer has a comprehensive experience in representing shareholders, managers and companies in administrative proceedings before the Brazilian Securities Exchange Commission – CVM.

Mr. Meyer is recognized by Chambers Latin America (2018) as one of the main acting lawyers in Brazil in the Corporate Law and Mergers & Acquisitions areas, having been praised by clients for his “outstanding ability to interpret the law, assessing all risks and advising on best alternatives to resolve matters in an intelligent manner.” He is also recognized by International Financial Law Review (IFLR 1000) Financial and Corporate (2018) as a highly regarded lawyer in Banking, Capital Markets, M&A and Private Equity. The Legal 500 Latin America (2017) also recommends Mr. Meyer in Corporate and M&A, having been referred by his clients as “extremely valuable in negotiations”. Additionally, he is listed as a standout practitioner in Corporate by Who’s Who Legal Brazil (2016) and as one of the most admired attorneys in Brazil by the publication Análise Advocacia 500 (2017). He is in the “LACCA Approved” list of recommended lawyers for 2018, voted by in-house counsel in Latin America, as one of the best Corporate/M&A lawyers to work with.

Mr. Meyer was an associate of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP in New York and a partner of Machado Meyer Sandacz & Opice Advogados in São Paulo. He received his Bachelor of Laws Degree (LL.B.) from Faculdade de Direito da Universidade de São Paulo (USP) in 1998 and his Masters in Laws Degree (LL.M.) from the University of Chicago in 2004.