Chamber Honors the Memory of Its Founder

Vicente Juliano Bonnard, President Emeritus of the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce, Inc., passed away on June 2, 2009, at the North Shore Hospital. He was 82.

Mr. Bonnard was a founding member of the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce in New York in 1969. His contributions to the growth and development of the Chamber, and to the creation of stronger business relations between Brazil and the United States in general, were far reaching and will be deeply missed. In 1970 Mr. Bonnard instituted the “Man of the Year” award, now known as the “Person of the Year” award, to honor two innovative and forward-thinking leaders (one from Brazil and one from the U.S.) who have made extraordinary contributions to the forging of closer ties between the two nations. He served as Chairman of its Organizational Committee until his passing.

From 1948 to 1967 Mr. Bonnard was Head of the Brazilian Aeronautical Commission’s New York Office. During this period he also performed logistical services for the Brazilian Army, Navy and Legislature, and provided assistance for the Military Delegates to the Brazilian Permanent Mission to the United Nations and for the Brazilian Delegation to the International Civil Aviation Commission (ICAO) in Canada. Mr. Bonnard also served as Representative of the (Brazilian) National Research Council (CNPq) in 1964.

From 1960 to 1967 he was accredited to USIS and to the UN as representative and correspondent for the Rio de Janeiro newspapers “O Dia” and “A Noticia”. Mr. Bonnard was the founder and President of Persan Corporation from 1967-1972; of Eximbras-Persan Trading Corporation from 1972-1994; and of VJ Air Corporation from 1982-1994.

He was also a founding member of the “Brazilian Institute for Education and Business Programs” at Cornell University, a founding member of the “Business Institute for Brazilian Studies” at Pace University and a founding member of the “Business Institute” at San Diego State University.

Throughout his honorable career Mr. Bonnard received numerous medals and decorations from governmental, academic, and private entities, including: Order of Merit “Santos Dumont”-Bronze and Silver, Brazilian Air Force, 1963 and 1964; Peacemaker Medal –Brazilian Army, 1963; Order of Merit (Air Force) –Cavalier, 1963; Marshall Candido Mariano da Silva Rondon Medal, 1967; Peace Medal, United Nations, Silver 1975, 1977;

Remembering a Legend

Selected messages received from public and private sector’s leaders paying homage to the Chamber’s founder.

IN ENGLISH

“It is with deep sorrow that I have learned the news of the passing of Mr. Vicente Bonnard, who was a founding member of the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce. Since 1968, during his tenure at the Chamber, Mr. Bonnard personally oversaw the unprecedented expansion of the BACC into the major player it has become today, registering over five hundred and twenty corporations among its members. He was also instrumental, during these last four decades, in furthering the commercial relations between Brazil and the United States. Working tirelessly and with admirable vigor and dedication Mr. Bonnard was the beneficiary of innumerable awards and decorations which he so richly deserved. His legacy will remain as an example and an inspiration for the Chamber and its members.”

– Osmar Chohfi, Ambassador, Consul General of Brazil in New York.

“I was deeply saddened by the news of Mr. Vicente Bonnard’s passing away. He was a man of great insight and personality, and his death is a great loss for all of us. I will always recall the meticulous attention he devoted to the organization of the Person of the Year Awards, and his unflinching commitment to strengthening Brazil-U.S. economic and trade relations.”

– Antonio de Aguiar Patriota, Ambassador of Brazil

“I am very sorry to know of the passing of our good friend Vicente Bonnard, that for so many years carried the banner of a stronger relationship between Brazil and the United States. His contribution and leadership in this field will be deeply remembered and missed.”

– Emane Galvês, Consultor Econômico da Presidência, Confederação Nacional do Comércio de Bens, Serviços e Turismo.

IN PORTUGUESE

“Bonnard é um ícone que viverá enquanto vivermos, em nosso alma, em nosso coração. Ve-lo cair é como se Nova York se desprendesse de mais uma de suas imorredoras imagens da nossa geracao, como o letreiro luminoso do Panam Building sobre a Park North.”

– Júlio César Gomes dos Santos, Ambassador of Brazil

“A incansável dedicação do senhor Bonnard à Câmara de Comércio Brasil- Estados Unidos e seu exemplo de empreendedorismo certamente continuarão a inspirar o êxito das atividades da Câmara na promoção das relações econômicas e comerciais entre os dois países”

– Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti, Permanent Representative of Brazil to the United Nations

“Seu exemplo servirá de inspiração constante à Câmara no seu empenho, a que Bonnard tanto se dedicou, de estreitar cada vez mais as relações entre Brasil e Estados Unidos, em contexto de paz, justiça, desenvolvimento sustentável e crescimento cultural e humano.”

– Marcílio Moreira, Former Minister of Finance

“Sua forte personalidade ia muito muito bem com sua cortesia, sua generosidade e com seu grande coração, gerando uma mescla do que de melhor a vida pode produzir em termos de cavalheirismo e fidalguia. A Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce teve nele sempre seu maior incentivador e seu mais dedicado servidor. A instituição do prêmio ‘Person of the Year’, hoje ponto de referência nas relações entre Brasil e Estados Unidos, decorreu de iniciativa sua. Quis o destino que fosse a preparação da última edição desse evento tambem seu último projeto, executado por ele com a dedicacao, o brilho o sucesso de sempre. Como São Paulo, ele poderá tambem dizer ao dobrar essa última esquina, haver vivido intensamente e lutado e vencido o bom combate.”

– Marcelo Jardim, Ambassador of Brazil

“Sua lembrança estará sempre gravada na memória daqueles que tiveram o privilégio de destinar da sua agradável companhia. Temperamento atípico, franco e com personalidade ímpar, constituiu-se em presença marcante junto aos militares e a seus familiares. Pego-lhe transmitir aos integrantes da Câmara de Comércio e amigos comuns, o quanto somos gratos por tudo que fizeram pela família militar, inspirados pelo nosso mais digno ‘Comandante’.”

– General Manoel Luis Castro
An outstanding panel of speakers including Julio Castro, Partner, Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP; Luiz Felipe Centeno Ferraz, Partner, Demarest e Almeida Advogados; and Lavinia Junqueira, Tax Director, Unibanco shared their expert perspectives on new tax developments with Chamber members and friends during this informative program. The panel provided an overview of cross-border tax issues faced by Brazilian and U.S. companies as a result of the financial crisis, and also offered insight into tax challenges and opportunities during the economic crisis, including use and acceleration of losses, use of tax attributed to acquired companies and tax implications of debt work-outs. The crisis’ effect on transfer pricing issues was also discussed.

This timely event, which occurred only one day after Brazil reduced its 2009 primary budget surplus, drew almost 100 business leaders eager to hear Mr. Mesquita discuss Brazil’s economic outlook during this challenging time. During his inspiring presentation, Mr. Mesquita stressed that Brazil’s decision to cut its primary budget surplus goal should be seen as a government attempt to limit damage to the economy during the global recession. He also emphasized that the monetary easing campaign started by the Central Bank in January was already having a positive effect on economic activity, with household consumption expected to rise 1.6% in 2009 on the back of improving labor markets.

Today the outlook for the real and all major currencies is especially uncertain, and yet currency forecasts remain central to investment decisions. This event brought together two of the foremost global currency experts to look at the causes of the collapse in the Brazilian currency. Daniel Tenengauzer, Head of Global Currency Strategy, Bank of America Securities - Merrill Lynch, and Michael Woolfolk, Chief Currency Strategist, Bank of New York Mellon, provided their perspectives in a discussion moderated by Paulo Vieira da Cunha, Principal, Tandem Global Partners.

An outstanding panel of expert speakers convened for this exciting Chamber event on the growing ethanol market in Brazil. Plinio Nastari, President, Datagro; Dr. Leonard Bichara Rocha, Economist, International Sugar Organization, Consultoria; and Alexandre Figiolino, Director, Banco Itaú BBA S.A. discussed the credit crunch's impact on the Brazilian sugarcane industry, and provided an invaluable outlook on the market's future.

This Chamber program provided an overview of precatórios and the constitutional amendment PEC 12 which was passed by the Brazilian senate on April 1, 2009. Waldemar Jezler, President, Libra Capital LLC moderated the expert panel of speakers which included Flavio J.S. Brando, President, Special Precatório Commission, Brazilian Bar Association, and Vice President, Precatório Commission, National Brazilian Bar Association; and José Virgilio Lopes Enei, Partner, Machado Meyer Sendacz e Opice Advogados.

This inspiring event focused on the findings of the 2009 Edelman Trust Barometer, a 20-country survey of key opinion leaders about trust and credibility. The panel of speakers included 3 top executives from the global public relations firm Edelman: Gail Becker, President, Western Region and Chairman, Canada & Latin America; Russel Dubner, President of the New York office; and Ronald Mincheff, Managing Director for Brazil. Survey findings included the fact that, in spite of challenging times, Brazil maintains one of the highest levels of trust in business, compared to other countries surveyed.

Fostering US-Brazil Business for Over 40 Years

Based in the heart of the world’s international, financial and business capital, New York City, the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce, Inc. is a non-governmental bilateral business association promoting trade and investment between Brazil and the United States. The Chamber strives to forge closer ties between the business communities of both nations.

Since 1969, the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce, Inc. has

- Increased the flow of US business and investment to Brazil and assisted Brazilian firms in exporting their products and services to the US;
- Helped American firms identify business partners in Brazil, and provided support services to Brazilian companies interested in opening operations in the US;
- Delivered the most current economic and business information on Brazil-US trade through its cadre of programs, publications and online resources.
